

As part of the ongoing recovery of Petersfield town, we thought it would be useful to demonstrate the comparison of parking in the East Hampshire District Car Parks compared to last year. This clearly shows the first lockdown data, where very few people were using car parks, to recent figures starting in July until October, where the recovery has almost been to last year levels

Meter & RingGo represents number of transactions